VOLUNTEER: MLK DAY OF SERVICE

MONDAY, JAN. 16

Martin Luther King Jr. Day is now a day off for all Penn State students, faculty and staff. We encourage you to treat your "day off" as a "day on" for your larger community! Scan the QR code at right or visit mlkdayofservice.org to sign up for a volunteer opportunity near you.

SCAN ME

WATCH: "TILL"

TUESDAY, JAN. 17 | 4:00-7:00PM @ SUB 114-117

Attend a screening and discussion of the 2022 film "Till," inspired by the true story of Mamie Till-Mobley's vow to expose the racism behind the brutal lynching of her son Emmett in 1955 and her work to have those involved brought to justice. Pizza, popcorn and refreshments will be served. Co-sponsored by Student Affairs

CONNECT: STUDENT INVOLVEMENT & RESOURCE FAIR

CREATE: WORDS OF HEALING

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 18 | 12:00-1:30PM @ SUB 1ST FLOOR

Learn how to get involved on campus and access the resources available to help you succeed! While you're there, take time to participate in a simple service project aimed at uniting our campus community. Craft two handmade bracelets featuring a word of healing - keep one for yourself and give one to someone else! Co-sponsored by Student Affairs

LEARN: TOWN HALL - THE REAL

THURSDAY, JAN. 19 | 12:15-1:15PM @ SUB 114-117

Dr. Christine Brown, Dr. Marinda Harrell-Levy and Eliel Acosta-Solalinde will share an update on the REAL, a group of students, staff and faculty working together to create an Anti-Hate, Anti-Racism Council here at Brandywine. Lunch will be provided.
